

From: Gerry De Cave
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/8/02 10:37am
Subject: Clinton-era anti-trust law abuse

Please stop squandering taxpayer's money in your pursuit of Microsoft. Competition means creating better goods and offering superior services to the consumer. The government should not be stifling progress and tying the hands of corporations. With the reins off the high-tech industry, more entrepreneurs will be encouraged to create new and competitive products.

Disgustedly,
Gerry De Cave